

CONSORTIUM AGREEMENT

A Consortium Agreement (Transient Credit Authorization) is a written agreement between two Title IV (financial aid) eligible schools for the purpose of providing federal financial assistance to the named student. Under the agreement, the “home school” — Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University — considers the student to be enrolled in an eligible program and accepts the credits earned at the host school. ERAU, as the home school, and the host school named herein are entering into a Consortium Agreement.
