The household information you listed on your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not match the household information you submitted on your 2022-2023 verification form. Clarification of the number of people in your household is needed before we can determine financial aid eligibility.

Household Information

List the people in your household, include:

- Yourself
- Your spouse, if you are married
- Your children, if you will provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023 even if they do not live with you
- Any other people if they now live with you, and you provide more than half of their financial support and will continue to provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023
- Unborn children who will receive more than half support from the parent from birth to the end of the award year

Also write in the name of the college for any household member who will be attending college at least half time between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023, and will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program. If additional space is required, please attach a written statement.
