2022-2023 Professional Judgment — Parent For Student

Read all instructions, complete the Professional Judgment Form, and submit ALL required documentation.

There are instances when a student's Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may not reflect the family's current situation. These are special circumstances that can be considered that may impact the student's financial aid eligibility. In these rare cases, a financial aid administrator may exercise professional judgment to adjust the student's Cost of Attendance or the data that determines the student's Expected Family Contribution. For detailed information please visit the professional judgment section of the ERAU financial aid terms and conditions page.

There must be a significant change to the family's income to be considered for a Professional Judgment. Commonly, the reduction in family income is a result of one or more of the following scenarios:

- An extended period of loss or change in employment and/or significant change in income
- Divorce or separation
- Death of a parent or spouse
- Reduction in child support
- Unusual out-of-pocket medical and/or dental expenses that exceed 11% of the Family's Adjusted Gross Income

A Professional Judgment appeal may also be submitted for consideration for Cost of Attendance increases for unusual expenses incurred for educational purposes. Adjustments in Cost of Attendance are generally limited to the following situations:

- Costs associated with a student's disability
- Child care expenses for a dependent child of a student
- One-time taxable income

Professional Judgments are reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and require a letter of explanation and supporting documentation. You must submit all required documentation in order for the Professional Judgment to be reviewed.
